Illegal Dumping: A Serious Problem for Texas

Property owners, taxpayers, and local governments in Texas spend millions of dollars each year cleaning up illegal dumps.

Illegal dumping threatens our health and safety. Pollutants can seep into rivers and groundwater. Dumps can be breeding grounds for rats and mosquitoes. Children playing near illegally dumped waste can be injured.

What You Can Do

- Dispose of your litter properly and encourage others to do the same.
- Spread the word to friends and neighbors that illegal dumping is a crime; involving fines, jail time, or both.
- Organize volunteer cleanups of illegal dumpsites, to discourage dumping.
- Contact your local elected officials to let them know your concerns.
- Report illegal dumping (see inside for more information)
